Credit Agricole CIB in the Americas

OFAC Notice

The United States Department of Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") administers and enforces economic and trade sanctions based on U.S. foreign policy and national security goals. OFAC’s laws and regulations prohibit U.S. Persons from dealing with certain individuals, entities, organizations, or countries subject to U.S. sanctions. Currently, OFAC administers economic embargoes against the following jurisdictions: the Western Balkans, Belarus, Burma, Côte d’Ivoire, Cuba, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Iran, Iraq, Liberia, North Korea, Sudan, Syria, and Zimbabwe. OFAC also administers targeted sanctions against Specially Designated Nationals ("SDNs"), including identified narcotics traffickers, terrorists, and weapons proliferators. The SDN list can be found at: http://www.ustreas.gov/offices/enforcement/ofac/sdn/index.shtml

As a financial institution operating in the United States, Credit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank ("Credit Agricole CIB"), its branches, and subsidiaries are subject to OFAC’s laws and regulations and we strive to conduct our business activities with all of our clients accordingly. As part of this effort, we trust that our dealings with you will allow us to remain fully compliant with OFAC’s laws and regulations.

We would like to thank you in advance for your cooperation.
