

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Crédit Agricole CIB appoints Antoine Rose as Head of Sustainable Banking for Asia-Pacific

Hong Kong, China – 1 June 2021 – Crédit Agricole CIB is pleased to announce the appointment of Antoine Rose as Head of Sustainable Banking for Asia-Pacific, effective 1 June 2021. In his new role, he will further develop Crédit Agricole CIB's sustainable finance footprint and product range in the region.

Antoine has more than 10 years' experience in the sustainable finance field. He first joined the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) department at Crédit Agricole CIB in 2010 and subsequently the Sustainable Banking team in 2014. In this team, he later became Sustainable Banking Director and took the responsibility of several large clients in Benelux, Germany, Austria and Switzerland, where he actively developed Crédit Agricole CIB's sustainable finance activities.

Based in Hong Kong, Antoine will report globally to Tanguy Claquin, Global Head of Sustainable Banking, and regionally to Cécile Bennehard, Head of Asia-Pacific Portfolio Management.

Tanguy Claquin, Global Head of Sustainable Banking, commented on the appointment: "We are pleased to welcome Antoine in his new position. With his robust experience and expertise, we are confident that he will continue to reinforce Crédit Agricole CIB's position in Asia-Pacific as a pioneer and innovative leader in Sustainable finance."

Cécile Bennehard, Head of Asia-Pacific Portfolio Management added: "Crédit Agricole CIB has been proactively supporting Asian and International issuers and investors on their Environmental, Social, and Corporate Governance (ESG) strategy. Antoine's extensive experience with the European market will certainly add value to our regional clients' green and sustainable journey."
