

CRÉDIT AGRICOLE CIB LONDON ENGLISH BRANCH TERMS OF BUSINESS

1 Applicability, commencement and relationship to other terms of business

- 1.1 Subject to clause 2 (Relationship with Client Documents) below, these terms and conditions (as amended, restated, varied or modified from time to time) (the “Terms”) apply only to Services and/or Transactions which are provided or entered into by the UK establishment of Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank (“we”, “us”, “our” or “Crédit Agricole CIB London”) with you (“you”, “your” or the “Client”), in your capacity as a Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty.
- 1.2 The Terms supersede any previous general terms of business which may be in force between you and us (including any terms of business received by us from you, unless expressly agreed by us in writing). By accepting Services, entering into Transactions or otherwise conducting business with us relating to the Services and/or Transactions, this will be construed by us as your agreement to these Terms. Subject to clause 2 (Relationship with Client Documents), the Terms shall prevail at all times over any terms of business issued by you to us, unless such terms of business have been expressly accepted by us in writing.
- 1.3 These Terms form part of the MIFID communication to Clients and may be accompanied by certain disclosures which we are required to provide to you in accordance with Applicable Law and which may be set out in the MIFID communication to Clients.

2 Relationship with Client Documents

- 2.1 Any Client Documents in respect of any Service or Transaction provided by us will govern the relationship between us and you in relation to that Service or Transaction. Such Client Documents will prevail over these Terms if any provisions of those Client Documents conflict with or address the same subject matter as these Terms, and shall prevail over your standard terms if we have agreed to carry on business with you on the basis of your standard terms. Any right or obligation arising under the Terms will not affect, interfere with or otherwise detract from the terms of the Client Documents governing the same subject matter. For the avoidance of doubt, the Terms shall be applicable in relation to matters not governed by the Client Documents;
- 2.2 If we have expressly agreed to any standard terms of business that you may have provided to us, those shall prevail over these Terms, provided that (1) your standard terms of business shall not apply to any Transaction or Service in relation to which we have provided Client Documents, in which case such transaction or service will be governed by our Client Documents; (2) to the extent that your standard terms do not address any subject matter addressed in these Terms, these Terms shall apply; and (3) in circumstances where we have agreed to carry on business in accordance with your standard terms, you expressly agree that your standard terms will be deemed to include a clause having the same effect as this clause 2.

3 Construction and interpretation

- 3.1 Definitions. The terms defined in Schedule 1 (Definitions) and elsewhere in the Terms will have the meanings therein specified for the purpose of the Terms.
- 3.2 Schedule (Definitions). Schedule 1 supplements and forms part of the Terms.
- 3.3 Unless the context otherwise requires, in the Terms the singular includes the plural and expressions used in the Terms which appear in the Handbook have the same meaning as they do in the Handbook, whether or not they are capitalised or separately defined.
- 3.4 References to a 'person' includes a natural person, corporate or unincorporated body (whether or not having separate legal personality) and that person's legal and personal representatives, successors or permitted assigns.
- 3.5 The words 'including', 'include' or 'such as' are deemed to have the words “without limitation” immediately following them.
- 3.6 If there is any conflict or inconsistency between the Terms and mandatory provisions of Applicable Law, such mandatory provisions of Applicable Law shall prevail.

6 Complaints

Our complaints policy is available at Compliance/ Customer Protection/ Crédit Agricole CIB (ca-cib.com). In the event that you have a complaint about the provision of our Services to you under these Terms, you may raise your complaint with your relationship manager or your usual representative, for whom the contact details have been given when entering into a relationship with us or throughout the relationship. Our complaints handling procedure, detailing the procedures we have in place to process complaints, are available to you on request.

Crédit Agricole CIB London undertakes to process complaints within two months of receipt of a complaint. If a complaint has not been processed within this timeframe (for example, if archives need to be repatriated, documentary searches undertaken, if a technical point needs to be reviewed), we shall send a letter to explain the reason behind such additional delay and will provide you with information on other steps that you can take.

If you are an eligible complainant (as defined in the FCA rules), you may have the right to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service. The Financial Ombudsman Service is a free and independent statutory dispute resolution scheme for financial services. Details of who are eligible complainants can be obtained from the Financial Ombudsman Service. The Financial Ombudsman Service's website is at <http://www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk> (or such other website as notified to you by us) and the methods of how to contact the Financial Ombudsman Service are set out on this website.

7 Your capacity and status

- 7.1 We will treat you in accordance with the Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty status attributed to you in the Notification Letter. You may request re-categorisation as a client that benefits from a higher degree of protection, however it is Crédit Agricole CIB London's policy not to accept such requests.
- 7.2 To the extent that you wish to change your classification or notify us of a change in your circumstances or any other matter in relation to your classification, you should follow the procedure set out in the Notification Letter.
- 7.3 If there are any circumstances in which you act as agent of, or trustee for, any person(s) (each a "Disclosed Principal"), you hereby agree prior to the provision of any Services for the benefit of such Disclosed Principal(s) to inform us of the identity of such person(s), along with any particular requirements that you may have when transacting on behalf of such person(s). This will not relieve you from any responsibilities or liability you may have in relation to the Transaction. However, we may agree in writing to transact with you in your capacity as agent for any such Disclosed Principal(s) at our absolute discretion in accordance with clause 7.4 below.
- 7.4 Notwithstanding clause 7.3 above, where we agree to transact with you in your capacity as agent for any Disclosed Principal, these Terms will take effect as a separate agreement between us and the Disclosed Principal, separate from the agreement between you and us and between us and any other Disclosed Principal. In this case, neither you nor any other Disclosed Principal will be liable as principal or surety for the performance of any Transaction entered into on behalf of any Disclosed Principal by virtue of these Terms, provided that this will not relieve you from any responsibilities or liabilities you may have in your capacity as agent for any Disclosed Principal. This shall apply whether the Disclosed Principals have a separate legal personality from one another or whether, under the constitutional structure adopted by the Disclosed Principals (e.g. an umbrella fund, a fund or a sub-fund), recourse to a Disclosed Principal and its assets is limited to Transactions entered into on behalf of that Disclosed Principal.
- 7.5 With respect to Services, you agree that if any account is to be opened in joint names, these Terms will bind each account holder and all undertakings, agreements, obligations and liabilities of an account holder under these Terms shall be joint and several undertakings, agreements, obligations and liabilities respectively of each account holder. Accordingly, we may from time to time exercise or enforce all or any of our powers, rights or remedies under these Terms against all or any account holders at our absolute discretion.

8 Communications between Crédit Agricole CIB London and Client

- 8.1 All information required to be provided by MIFID to Clients or potential Clients or otherwise under these Terms may be provided in electronic format.

All communications between you and Crédit Agricole CIB London may be monitored and/or stored by us in accordance with our relevant policies, including the provisions of clause 35 (Use of personal data) hereof and to the extent permitted by Applicable Law. We notify you that, as required by Applicable Law, Crédit Agricole CIB London records telephone conversations and other communications between us and uses voice recording systems in connection with communications with you. You consent to this and agree to obtain any relevant consent of (and give any necessary notice of such recording to) your relevant personnel. Such voice recording systems may not use any warning tone. Any voice recording made by our voice recording systems belongs to us and constitutes conclusive evidence of the communication so recorded, in any dispute or other proceedings in relation to these Terms or any Transaction or Service, including, without limitation, in relation to any enquiry by any Competent Authority. You agree that we may deliver copies or transcripts of voice recordings to any party where required or permitted under Applicable Law. Please be also informed that a copy of the recording of such conversations and communications is available on your request, subject to any reasonable charge Crédit Agricole CIB London may in its sole discretion impose for such access, for a period of at least five years (up to seven years depending on your jurisdiction). Additionally, records which set out our and your rights and obligations under an agreement to provide Services, or the present Terms, shall be retained for at least the duration of the relationship with the Client.

- 8.2 We may amend the Order Execution Policy (as well as other applicable policies) and the Terms from time to time. We shall notify you of any material changes. Where we do notify you, all such amendments will become effective and binding on you ten (10) Business Days after being notified to you or as otherwise specified in the notice (the “Effective Date”). For the avoidance of doubt, no amendments to the Terms will affect any Service or Transaction or any legal rights or obligations which may already have arisen before the Effective Date.

- 8.3 Current versions of the Order Execution Policy and the Terms are available on our Website.
- 8.4 Crédit Agricole CIB London may suspend the Website without notice where it considers it necessary to do so, in its sole discretion.

9 Notices and service of process

- 9.1 Please address any notices in connection with the Terms to Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank, MIFID Services, 12, place des États-Unis, CS 70052, 92 547 Montrouge Cedex, France.
- 9.2 Notices under the Terms must be delivered personally or sent by registered post. Notices sent pursuant to the Terms will be deemed received by the receiving party:
- (i) if personally delivered, upon delivery to the party's registered office;
 - (ii) if sent by registered post to an address in the United Kingdom, two (2) Business Days after posting; or
 - (iii) if sent by registered post to an address outside the United Kingdom, five (5) Business Days after posting.
- 9.3 If you do not have a permanent place of business in England or Wales, you agree to accept service of process in any location in which you transact business in England or Wales and you waive any defences or challenges to such service of process. This does not affect our right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

10 Transaction reporting

- 10.1 All Transactions in Financial Instruments executed by Crédit Agricole CIB London, whether or not such Transactions are carried out on the trading venue, are required to be reported to the FCA as soon as possible after execution but in any event no later than as required by Applicable Law (i.e. no later than the close of the following working day under MIFIR). Such report to the FCA includes, in particular, quantity, price, type of Financial Instrument, time/date and identification of the Client.
- 10.2 To fulfil its regulatory obligations when reporting these Transactions, Crédit Agricole CIB London is required to submit a LEI for its clients.

For the avoidance of doubt, all Transactions in Financial Instruments executed by Crédit Agricole CIB London, which include Clients' LEIs, are required to be reported in line with applicable regulations and are not made public as part of this process.

11 Post-trade transparency

- 11.1 A summary of real-time information relating to Transactions in Financial Instruments which are classified as traded on a trading venue (TOTV) is made available to the public following the execution of such Transactions, whether Crédit Agricole CIB London acts in its capacity as systematic internaliser or not. Such information includes time/date, quantity, price, venue of execution and type of Financial Instrument (but does not include counterparty information) and is communicated via Approved Publication Arrangements (APA). Information needs to be made public in a timely manner (i.e. within one minute for equity and equity-like products and within five minutes for non-equity products).
- 11.2 In certain circumstances (in particular pursuant to Articles 21(4) and 20(2) of MIFIR), we may defer the reporting of information.
- 11.3 Where our counterparty is an Investment Firm, and such Investment Firm is not a systematic internaliser, Crédit Agricole CIB London will report the information referred to in clause 11.1. Unless you have notified us otherwise and provided us with up-to-date details on the scope of the Financial Instruments in which you act as a systematic internaliser, we will be entitled to assume that you are not acting in the capacity of a systematic internaliser.
- 11.4 Clause 11.1 will not apply to Transactions excluded from the regulations as per Article 1 of MIFIR.

12 Pre-trade transparency

12.1 Where Crédit Agricole CIB London is acting in its capacity as systematic internaliser in respect of Financial Instruments which are bonds, derivatives, structured finance products and emissions allowances, traded on a trading venue and for which there is a liquid market, we will make public quotes if a Client has requested a quote and provided that we have agreed to provide one.

In respect of Financial Instruments which are bonds, derivatives, structured finance products and emissions allowances, traded on a trading venue and for which there is not a liquid market, we may (without assuming any obligation in that respect) disclose quotes on request unless otherwise permitted by Applicable Law.

12.2 The obligation referred to in clause 12.1 will not apply where the quote is provided in relation to a quantity of Financial Instruments which is above the size specific to that Financial Instrument. The size specific to the Financial Instrument is determined by the FCA from time to time.

12.3 Where we grant access to quotes published in accordance with clause 12.1, and if the quoted size is at or below the size specific to the Financial Instrument, we may enter into Transactions under the published conditions with any other client to whom the quote is made available in accordance with Article 18 MIFIR.

12.4 Where Crédit Agricole CIB London publishes a quote in accordance with clause 12.1 above, and where we give you access to these quotes, you agree that we may limit the number of Transactions that we undertake to enter into with you at the published quote.

12.5 If we are acting in our capacity as systematic internaliser and dealing in sizes below the standard market size in shares, depositary receipts, exchange-traded funds, certificates or other similar Financial Instruments traded on a regulated market, multilateral trading facility or organised trading facility, and for which there is a liquid market (we will otherwise disclose quotes upon request), we will make public firm quotes in accordance with Articles 14(1) and 15(1) MIFIR. When we give you access to these quotes:

- (a) Except as otherwise permitted by Applicable Law and subject to paragraph (b) below, we will execute the orders we receive from you at the quoted prices at the time of receipt of the Order; and
- (b) You agree that we may limit: (a) the number of Transactions that we undertake to enter into with you at the published quote; and (b) the total number of simultaneous Transactions that we undertake to enter into with other clients at the published quote when the number and/or volume of orders sought by clients considerably exceeds the norm.

12.6 Where we grant access to quotes published in accordance with clause 12.5, we may enter into a Transaction with any other client to whom the quote is made available, in accordance with Article 15 MIFIR.

12.7 We may decide, on the basis of our commercial policy and from an objective and non-discriminatory perspective, the clients to whom we give access to our quotes. We may refuse to enter into or discontinue business relationships with clients on the basis of commercial considerations such as the client credit status, the counterparty risk and the final settlement of the Transaction. In particular (but not exclusively), such denial may be made when (i) the client is in a different category from the client for whom the quote was provided or (ii) market conditions have changed since the publication of the initial guide.

12.8 In certain circumstances, we may execute Orders at a better price provided that the price falls within a public range close to market conditions.

12.9 We may update our quotes at any time and we may withdraw our quotes under exceptional market conditions.

13 Dealer or signatory mandates

Unless we expressly agree to do so in writing, Crédit Agricole CIB London shall have no responsibility or liability to verify the identity of individuals or signatures against lists of authorised signatories, authorised dealers or officers authorised to enter into Transactions or verify that Instructions comply with any of your internal limits, restrictions or other conditions or requirements ("Mandates") and all such Mandates received by Crédit Agricole CIB London shall not impose any obligations, restrictions or liabilities on Crédit Agricole CIB London.

14 Orders

- 14.1 As a matter of principle, Crédit Agricole CIB London only executes transactions on the basis of an Indication of Interest from the Client. Crédit Agricole CIB London may decide to consider an Indication of Interest from a Client but is not obliged to contact the Client or to accept it. When receiving an Indication of Interest, we may contact Clients and provide a quote for the same or similar quantity, and at the same price or at a similar price as the one indicated by the Client at the time the Indication of Interest was previously expressed. This will be performed on a best efforts basis and does not amount to a guarantee or firm commitment to contact Clients nor give rise to an obligation to enter into a contract with a Client. The quote provided to the Client by Crédit Agricole CIB London in consideration of this Indication of Interest does not create any legal obligation for Crédit Agricole CIB London with respect to any client until that Client accepts the quote.
- 14.2 Exceptionally, Crédit Agricole CIB London may at its sole discretion, agree to accept an Order. However, we are not under any obligation to accept Orders from Clients. We may at any time, and without any liability on our part, refuse to act upon, execute, transmit or otherwise implement an Order.

15 Order execution

- 15.1 Following acceptance of an Order, and unless executing such Order in accordance with the Client's specific Instructions and/or subject to any regulatory requirement, we have full discretion as to how to execute the Order. As a consequence of exercising our discretion, an Order may not be executed in full or in part and our ability to execute an Order in full may depend on the nature of the Order and market conditions.
- 15.2 Following the execution of part of an Order, we will inform clients without undue delay. Any cancellation of Orders requires our prior agreement.
- 15.3 Following receipt of your specific Instructions on how to execute an Order, we will complete your Order in accordance with those Instructions, unless doing so would be contrary to laws and regulations or our policies and procedures, and in each case, we reserve the right to decline any Instruction for whatever reason, without any obligation to provide reasons.
- 15.4 If you are a Professional Client, you hereby consent to us executing your Orders in accordance with the Order Execution Policy that will be made available on our Website. The Order Execution Policy does not apply to our dealings with Eligible Counterparties.
- 15.5 We may use our reasonable endeavours to execute any Order promptly, but in accepting an Order we do not represent or warrant that it will be possible to execute such Order or that execution will be possible according to your Instructions. We may carry out an Order on your behalf only when the relevant market is open for dealings, and we may deal with any Instructions received outside market hours as soon as possible when that relevant market is next open for business (in accordance with the rules of that market).
- 15.6 We may, at any time, suspend or impose limits on the size or nature of Orders that we may accept.

16 Order aggregation

To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, we may combine your Order with our own orders or those of any Crédit Agricole Group entities and orders of other clients when, in our good-faith opinion, we believe that doing so will work to your advantage and such aggregation is unlikely to work overall to the disadvantage of any client whose order is to be aggregated. Our Order Execution Policy that will be made available will provide for the fair allocation of aggregated orders and transactions, including how volume and price of orders determines allocation and the treatment of partial executions. Aggregation may result in your obtaining on some occasions a more favourable price and on others a less favourable price than if your Order had been executed separately. For you and each client whose order is to be aggregated, the effect of aggregation may work to your/its disadvantage in relation to a particular order.

17 Block Trading

- 17.1 To the extent that you enter into any single transaction (or block trade) in a capacity as agent on behalf of or for the benefit of more than one Disclosed Principal, to be allocated to each Disclosed Principal post trade, Crédit Agricole CIB London will allocate the transaction as agreed with you as agent. If we do not immediately agree on the allocation, we will allocate the transaction to each Disclosed Principal in our good faith discretion, which may be in a pro rata fashion. If we determine in good faith discretion that any portion of the transaction should not be allocated (each such portion, an “Unallocated Portion”) to any Disclosed Principal due to a conflict with our internal procedures or external regulatory requirements, we shall (i) re-allocate any such Unallocated Portion first, to the other Disclosed Principals as agreed between us, or second, if the parties do not immediately agree, in our good faith discretion, which may be in a pro rata fashion to the other Disclosed Principals or (ii) cancel any Unallocated Portion to the extent such portion has not immediately been re-allocated to the other Disclosed Principals because the parties did not immediately agree on the re-allocation.
- 17.2 If these block trading provisions apply and you are acting as an agent, you represent that (i) the entry into the transaction with any Disclosed Principal shall not constitute a breach of any other agreement and (ii) each Disclosed Principal meets minimum EU market-standard criteria for KYC, including anti-money laundering and terrorist financing standards, and no Disclosed Principal resides in a non-cooperative tax jurisdiction as determined by the EU or the Republic of France.

18 The Services

- 18.1 Crédit Agricole CIB London may, but is not obliged by anything in the Terms to,:
- (i) provide any Services at our discretion and subject to further documentation as we consider appropriate;
 - (ii) deal with you on our own account or as agent for you or a combination of the two;
 - (iii) do whatever we consider necessary or desirable or incidental to dealing with you and/or providing the Services to you;
 - (iv) delegate the performance of any Service or activity to an associated company or such other person or persons as we think fit, including but not limited to, entering into arrangements with clearing brokers or members of an exchange; or
 - (v) introduce you to such other person(s) as we consider in our discretion is necessary or desirable to perform certain Services or parts thereof.
- 18.2 Unless you otherwise notified us in writing, we shall provide the Services on the basis that there will be no restrictions on the type of investment or markets on which you wish your Transactions to be executed.
- 18.3 In providing the Services, and unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing between us on a case by case basis, we will assume that you have the necessary expertise and experience to determine whether or not the risks associated with the Services are acceptable to you.
- 18.4 Except where we expressly agree otherwise on a case-by-case basis in writing in relation to any specific Transaction, in providing investment services other than investment advice (as order execution) we shall not provide you with investment advice as regards your financial position generally (as we do not provide Personal Recommendations). When providing Services other than investment advice, we will be unable to assess whether a particular product, Transaction or Service is suitable for you. You agree and acknowledge that you will be responsible for making your own independent assessment of the merits, suitability of any Transaction or Service to your particular circumstances and own investment objectives. You will take all decisions in relation to any Transaction or Services in reliance on your own judgement and, as you deem appropriate, in accordance with advice from your own professional advisers.
- 18.5 If we introduce you to another provider of investment services or activity, your relationship with that other person will be governed by documentation between you and that person. We will not be a party to that relationship and will not be liable for the actions of any such other person.

18.6 All Services will be provided in compliance with the mandatory provisions of Applicable Law, which will take precedence if there is any conflict or inconsistency between these Terms and the mandatory provisions of Applicable Law.

19 Providing Instructions to Crédit Agricole CIB London

19.1 Instructions may be given orally or in writing, including by electronic means, unless we agree with you that Instructions in relation to a particular Service can be given only in a particular way. We may (but are not obliged to) ask you to confirm oral Instructions in writing or to confirm any Instructions by an authenticated messaging system acceptable to Crédit Agricole CIB London. In accordance with and pursuant to Applicable Law, verbal instructions may be recorded.

19.2 We have no responsibility for Instructions that are inaccurate or not received by us or that are otherwise corrupted or incomplete, and may execute any Transaction on the terms actually received by us. You authorise us to act on any Instruction (by whatever means transmitted, whether or not confirmed in writing) which purports, and which we reasonably believe, without further enquiry as to the genuineness, authority or identity of the person giving or purporting to give those Instructions, to come from you or to have been given on your behalf.

19.3 We may cancel an Instruction or Transaction, in whole or in part, where requested to do so by a regulator or pursuant to Applicable Law, or where a Transaction has been executed at a clearly erroneous price. Under Applicable Law, Orders which have not been executed by close of business on the relevant market may expire. A Transaction or Instruction is only binding on us when we confirm to you that it has been executed or otherwise successfully implemented. You will be bound by all executions (partial or otherwise) of Orders that we receive from you.

19.4 You agree on request by us to confirm any oral Instructions in writing, to ratify and confirm any Instructions given or purported to be given by you by any person purporting to act on your behalf and that electronic signatures made by you are legally binding on you.

19.5 Notwithstanding our general willingness to perform the Services, we are not under any obligation to accept, act on, confirm or verify any Instruction provided that where we decline to act on an Instruction, we will in good faith endeavour to notify you, without any obligation to provide reasons.

19.6 Subject to clause 2 (Relationship with Client Documents), in circumstances where we hold Financial Instruments on your behalf, we will not be obliged to take up or dispose of any rights, exercise any conversion, subscription or redemption rights, deal with take-overs or other offers or capital reorganisations or exercise any voting rights except where you give us written and timely Instructions to do so to the extent permitted by Applicable Law; provided we will not incur any material cost or liability due to the exercise of the same without reasonable compensation and/or indemnity. You acknowledge and agree that we will not become subject to any liability for failing to exercise any right or to procure any benefit for you for any reason, including to the extent we fail to act upon your instructions if we are acting or refraining to act in our good-faith discretion.

19.7 You acknowledge that data transmitted through any electronic system (including emails, instant messaging and Platforms) may not be encrypted and that it is possible, even if encrypted, that such data may be accessed or tampered with by unauthorised parties, may not arrive in the form transmitted or at all, and/or may become corrupted and/or may contain harmful or malicious code or programmes, and you agree to assume all risks arising out of or in connection with your use of the same.

20 Conflicts of interest

20.1 When we perform a Service or enter into a Transaction, we may have an interest, relationship or arrangement that is material in relation to that Service or Transaction. Crédit Agricole CIB London operates and complies with Crédit Agricole Group's Conflicts of Interest Policy, and within the framework set out in its own Conflicts of Interest Policy (the "Policy"), a summary of which is available on the Website. We provide Services and conduct Transactions in accordance with this Policy.

20.2 You authorise us, notwithstanding any conflict of interest or the existence of a material interest on our part in any Service or in relation to any Transaction, to perform the Service or enter into the Transaction without informing you except where we are obliged to do so under the terms of the Policy. In such cases, we will disclose to you the nature, risks and mitigating factors associated with the conflict.

21 Charges and remuneration

- 21.1 You agree to pay us any commissions, charges and fees agreed between you and Crédit Agricole CIB London upon demand and as notified from time to time. You agree also to reimburse us for all applicable costs, commissions, charges, fees, expenses and penalties, including without limitation, brokerage, clearing and settlement charges, and other fees of third parties in connection with the Services or any Transactions with us. You also agree to pay or reimburse us on demand for any Tax imposed by a Competent Authority in connection with the Services and/or Transactions (including stamp-duty or withholding tax, but excluding income tax). We may deduct funds at our discretion from any of your accounts with us to pay such amounts.
- 21.2 You agree that we may receive remuneration and commission as a result of performing the Services and/or in relation to the Transactions and from sharing charges with third parties, and our fees will not be reduced by that remuneration and/or commission.

22 Information on Costs and Charges

In accordance with Applicable Law, Crédit Agricole CIB London will provide you in electronic format only with all information regarding costs and charges. We will, in good time before the provision of services to you, provide you with appropriate information in relation to the costs and charges in accordance with Applicable Law including in relation to: (a) the services we provide to you and/or the Financial Instruments available via the services; (b) information on how to pay such costs and charges; and (c) (if applicable) any third party payments we receive in connection with the services we provide to you. Unless indicated otherwise, information on costs is given for information purposes only. Costs to be paid shall be those communicated to the Client following the provision of the relevant Service. You agree that, where we have notified you that we have classified you as a Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law we may provide you with more limited information on costs and charges than would otherwise normally be required under Applicable Law.

22.1 Full disclosure

Crédit Agricole CIB London will only provide you with information regarding costs and charges in accordance with Applicable Law, if it offers you investment advice or portfolio management. You agree that Crédit Agricole CIB London may provide you with information on costs and charges on an aggregated basis. Where we have only provided you with information on an aggregated basis, you may request an itemised breakdown which we will provide to you if and to the extent required by Applicable Law. If you consider that we have not provided you with any required information regarding costs and charges, please notify us.

22.2 Limited disclosure

For every other investment service offered to you by Crédit Agricole CIB London, you agree to a limited application of the detailed cost disclosure requirements where permitted by Article 50(1) (information on costs and associated charges) of the MIFID Delegated Regulation 2017/565 as it forms part of UK domestic law. We will provide you with information regarding costs and charges by way of a tariff grid which shows the maximum costs and charges we would apply for the contemplated Transaction, except where:

- (a) We have categorised you as a Professional Client and the Financial Instruments embed a derivative;
- (b) We have categorised you as an Eligible Counterparty, irrespective of the investment service provided, the Financial Instruments embed a derivative and you intend to offer such Financial Instruments to your clients.

You will find our tariff grids and other MIFID costs and charges documentation for this purpose on our Website. However, should you require more information on costs and charges, we will provide you with an itemised breakdown of all applicable cost and charges if, and to the extent, required by Applicable Law.

23 Client money

- 23.1 With respect to Services, any money held by us on your behalf in an account will be held as banker, not as trustee, and will therefore not be subject to the protections conferred by the FCA's Client Money

Rules as set out in the Handbook (CASS 7). Such funds will not be segregated from the money of Crédit Agricole CIB London and may be used by it in the course of its business. As a result, if Crédit Agricole CIB London fails, the FCA's Client Money Distribution Rules (CASS 7A) will not apply to these sums and you will not be entitled to share in any distribution. You (or, where applicable, your Principal(s)) will therefore rank only as a general creditor of Crédit Agricole CIB London.

- 23.2 Where you have made an overpayment of less than £100 to Crédit Agricole CIB London, whether due to accounting reconciliation processes or otherwise, and such overpaid amount remains unclaimed 5 business days after making such overpayment, we may in our sole discretion write-off such overpaid amount.

24 Pre-hedging and programme trades

- 24.1 We may at any time pre-hedge a Transaction and, in relation to Programme Trades, you agree that we are not obliged to inform you whether we act as principal or agent. You agree that to enable us to manage our risk position, we may take positions in Financial Instruments (including executing own account Transactions), and you agree that any profits or losses of such positions may be retained by us without any further disclosure to you. You acknowledge that any of these actions may affect the price paid or received by you in relation to a Financial Instrument included in a Programme Trade or any Transaction.
- 24.2 When you provide us with specific information for the purpose of obtaining a quote or request us to enter into a Transaction as your counterparty, such information, along with all other information available to us, may (subject to Applicable Law) be used by us to engage in trading, market making and risk management activities, including pre-hedging and hedging activities, without further disclosure to you.
- 24.3 Any pre-hedging or hedging transaction will be entered into with a view to managing risk and facilitating your Transaction and may be executed before, during and after receiving a live pricing request or firm order from you. Any pre-hedging or hedging transaction entered into by us may be at a different price from the price at which we execute your Transaction, and may affect the market prices or rates of, or liquidity for, the products you are buying or selling which may result in profit or loss for us.

25 Stabilisation

We may effect Transactions that are subject to stabilisation (a price supporting process that may temporarily inflate the market price of a new issue). You agree that we owe you no duties in respect of legitimate stabilisation activities undertaken by us.

26 Rights of security and power of sale

Your attention is drawn to the fact that we have the following rights and powers over your Financial Instruments and money held by or for us on your behalf:

- (i) you agree that all your Financial Instruments and money held at any time by or for us shall be and remain a continuing security for the payment when due of all and any amounts owing in accordance with any Service or other matter under the Terms;
- (ii) these rights are without prejudice to any other rights of lien, set-off or combination of accounts we may have;
- (iii) you agree to execute such further documents and take such further action as we may reasonably require in order to enable Crédit Agricole CIB London to exercise its rights, to comply with any Applicable Law or to satisfy any market requirement;
- (iv) you undertake neither to create nor to have outstanding any security interest over, nor to agree to assign or transfer, any of the collateral transferred to us;
- (v) you agree that we may, free of any adverse interest of you or any other person, grant a security interest over the collateral provided by you to cover any of our obligations owed to third parties by virtue of the positions held by us for you; and
- (vi) in addition, and without prejudice to any rights which we may be entitled to under the Terms or any Applicable Law, we shall have a general lien and right of set-off on all property held by us on your behalf until your obligations are satisfied.

The rights pursuant to this clause are supplemental to any rights to which we may be entitled pursuant to Applicable Law and pursuant to the Client Documents (unless otherwise expressly provided in the relevant Client Documents).

27 Lien and set-off

- 27.1 With respect to the Services, without prejudice and in addition to any general lien and/or right of set-off or similar right to which we may be entitled by Applicable Law, you hereby expressly grant to us a general lien over all or any part of your interest in any monies, securities or other property held or controlled by us for any purpose and the rights set out below.
- 27.2 We may, without prior notice to you at any time or times without restriction, combine or consolidate all or any accounts held by us in your name or on your behalf and set-off or transfer the whole or any part of the sum standing to the credit of any one or more accounts held by us in your name or on your behalf against or towards satisfaction of any obligations, in respect of any Services or Transactions (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any amount due under clause 39 hereof) or in any other respect whatsoever, regardless of the place of payment, booking branch or currency of those liabilities (including any amount owed by you under the Terms). If the liabilities are in different currencies, we can convert either sum at a market rate of exchange used in our usual course of business for the purpose of any combination, consolidation, set-off or transfer. We may pledge, hypothecate, sell and/or purchase any and all Financial Instruments in your accounts, and transfer money and or any Financial Instrument between accounts whenever we deem necessary, without notice to you, to satisfy this right of set-off.
- 27.3 For the avoidance of doubt, any rights pursuant to this clause shall be without prejudice to any specific arrangements with respect to liens, rights of set-off or similar rights set forth in the relevant Client Documents or pursuant to applicable law. Unless otherwise provided for in the Client Documents, the rights pursuant to this clause shall supplement any rights pursuant to the Client Documents.

28 Settlement and confirmations

- 28.1 Where we carry out Transactions with or for you, we will send or arrange to have sent to you confirmations and/or statements of account in accordance with Crédit Agricole CIB London's standard procedures ("Contract Notes"). You agree we may send confirmations and contract notes by post, email, or any durable medium. Contract Notes are conclusive in respect of all information set out in them and shall be deemed to have been accepted by you if you do not object to their terms in writing within 24 hours of receipt by you. Contract Notes are, in the absence of manifest error, conclusive evidence of the matters to which they relate. It is your responsibility to promptly inform us (in any event prior to the settlement of any Transaction) of any change to your contact (including settlement) details, or of the non-receipt of a confirmation or a contract note, or if any confirmation or contract note that you have received from us is incorrect.
- 28.2 You may request information on the status of your Transaction at any time.
- 28.3 You will provide us with freely transferable cleared funds immediately available without any deduction (whether in respect of set-off, counter-claim, taxation or otherwise) in the currency of the relevant Contract Note or make good delivery of Financial Instruments or other assets to enable us to settle all deals for your account on the required settlement day. In addition, you will forthwith on demand put us in funds to enable us to discharge or settle any liability incurred or to be incurred in connection with any Services performed for your account. You hereby undertake to inform us when a sell Order is in respect of Financial Instruments where you know that you will not be able to make good delivery. You irrevocably authorise us to buy or borrow Financial Instruments to cover any liability of yours to deliver investments to us. We may debit any of your accounts with any Loss we suffer in this way. You will bear all costs and risks of payment and delivery to us or to our order upon settlement of any Transaction. Similarly, where we undertake Transactions on your behalf, delivery or payment by the other party to the Transaction is entirely at your risk. Our obligation to deliver Financial Instruments to you or to your account for the proceeds of the disposal of Financial Instruments will be conditional on prior receipt by us of appropriate documents or cleared funds from the other parties to the Transaction.
- 28.4 Our obligation to settle or deliver any Financial Instruments purchased by you is conditional upon receipt by us on or before the due date for settlement (or satisfactory confirmation of such receipt by our settlement agent) of all necessary documents, securities or funds due to be delivered by you or on your behalf on that date.

28.5 Where, in respect of transactions that are subject to the CSDR, we are not able to deliver all of the securities for which we are committed within the framework of the initial transaction, we propose to make partial deliveries from the first day of default. Where, in respect of transactions that are subject to the CSDR, we have not had delivered to us securities to which we have a claim, we propose, from the first day of default a partial unwinding of the position on the part of its counterparty.

29 Interest

Unless otherwise provided, we may charge you interest on (i) net debit balances in your accounts at the overnight rate customarily charged by us and on any other amounts due and owing to us and (ii) any security or instrument that you fail to deliver at a commercially reasonable rate determined by us. Interest will accrue on a daily basis and will be due and payable by you as a separate debt. Unless otherwise agreed, we will not pay interest to you on any credit balances in your accounts representing cash or liquid securities available for withdrawal without notice.

30 Margin payments

Where we perform Services for you which require margin payments, you must immediately on demand deposit with us a margin payment in at least the amount demanded by us for the Service. You agree immediately on demand to make any payment to remedy a shortfall in the margin payment at any time when your account with us shows a debit balance or your margin requirement increases. Margin payments will be made in cash unless we expressly agree otherwise in writing.

Reference to DAC 6 or to DAC 6 Implementing Legislation, shall be construed as a reference to the same as it may be amended, supplemented, modified or re-enacted from time to time. As a result of DAC 6 Implementing Legislation, the Client hereby expressly acknowledges and agrees that, each time Crédit Agricole CIB London will act as intermediary, as defined by DAC 6 Implementing Legislation, Crédit Agricole CIB London will be legally required to disclose information including confidential information on certain services or transactions if they were to qualify as "reportable arrangements" based on the Hallmarks, subject to any banking secrecy the intermediary may be bound by and, except if the disclosure of the information has already been made by another intermediary or by the Client itself.

FATCA Regulation obliges the non US financial institutions to (i) provide the U.S. tax administration with information on Clients with accounts on their books and identified as U.S. persons, pursuant to this regulation, and (ii) apply a 30% FATCA withholding tax on certain payments made to recalcitrant account holders or other financial institutions that do not comply with FATCA regulation ("Non-Participating Foreign Financial Institutions"). FATCA is particularly complex. It is your responsibility to consult your own tax advisor on the potential consequences arising from executing the Transactions depending on your status under FATCA Regulation. You thus acknowledge that you are informed of such consequences, and particularly of Crédit Agricole CIB London's obligations to (i) collect information, (ii) report to the IRS either directly or through the relevant local tax authorities and (iii) withhold. Crédit Agricole CIB London has an obligation to comply with FATCA as a "Reporting Financial Institution" in accordance with the applicable intergovernmental agreement between the United States of America and the UK as a "Participating Foreign Financial Institution" under a FFI agreement with the IRS. Crédit Agricole CIB London relies on your status under FATCA as it has been conveyed through any documentation such as, notably, US Form W-9 or W-8, and when available, publicly available information in order to classify you under FATCA Regulation. Crédit Agricole CIB London may also request you for additional information or documentation in order to document your status under FATCA. You will then promptly, and in any event no later than 90 days from this request, provide such information or details so requested. Should you fail to provide such information, you will be considered as not documented under FATCA. You undertake to inform Crédit Agricole CIB London of any change that could potentially impact your status under FATCA and to provide Crédit Agricole CIB London promptly on request any additional information or documentation following a change of its circumstances which could potentially impact your status under FATCA.

42 Automatic Exchange of Information

The Common Reporting Standard (OECD 2014 Standard for Automatic Exchange of Information on Financial Accounts for Tax Purposes "CRS") requires financial institutions to take all necessary steps to identify financial accounts and persons who are subject to reporting under the Automatic Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes agreements signed by the country in which the account holder is located. Within the framework of these obligations, you are required to provide, at the time of account opening, the form presented by Crédit Agricole CIB London the "Self-certification of tax residence" duly completed and executed, or any other equivalent document allowing you to establish your tax status with regard to the CRS. You are informed that we may be required, in application of the aforementioned legislation, to transmit the information collected, as well as other information relating to your accounts, to the tax authorities of the country or countries in which you have declared yourself to be a tax resident. In case of difficulty, you should consult either your own tax advisor, the tax authorities or the OECD information portal. Crédit Agricole CIB London, as a financial institution, is not authorized to provide you with any tax advice. You also undertake to inform us of any change in your situation that may have an impact on your status with regard to the Automatic Exchange of Information and to promptly provide us with any additional information or documentation following a change in your circumstances that may have an impact on your tax status.
